DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

- The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:
 The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
- 2. Claims 1-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 recites the limitation "said rake" in line 10. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. It appears applicant is referencing "a plurality of rakes" as set forth in line 3, and should therefore refer to "said plurality of rakes" in line 10.

Claim 1, line 10 refers to "carrier", which is confusing, since "a rake frame carrier structure" is set forth previously in line 7. Is the same structure being recited? If so, "carrier" should be replaced with said rake frame carrier structure".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
- 4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Scott (US 5,265,975). Scott discloses a scarifier comprising a plurality of rakes, seen as teeth (2) in Figs. 1 and 2, mounted on a rake frame, seen as bracket means (5). A rake frame support is disclosed as supporting frame (4), mounting the bracket means (5) to a rake frame carrier structure, seen as cylinders (19a, 20a) and links (23). Controlled movement of the rakes in the vertical direction results from retraction and extension of cylinders (12a, 12b) (Col 9, lines 1-6). A force applicator is disclosed as hydraulic cylinders (12a, 12b). With the respect to the intended use recitations in claim 1, it has been held that a recitation with respect to the manner in which a claimed apparatus is intended to be employed does not differentiate the claimed apparatus from a prior art apparatus satisfying the claimed structural limitations. Ex parte Masham, 2 USPQ2d 1647 (1987).

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 2-19 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejections under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Chiba et al (US 4,793,733), Cutler (US 3,907,450), Scott (US 5,407,013), Conrad (US 2,838,858), and Trammer (US 5,407,014) disclose scarifiers. Bargfrede et al (US 4,967,850) discloses a tooth retractor and blade latching mechanism. Gurries et al (US 3,880,243) and Leliter (US 2,686,932) disclose road working machines. Benoit (US 5,535,832) discloses a land leveler and cultivator. Damp et al (US 4,601,605) disclose a roadway surface reconditioning apparatus. Boertlein (US 5,833,011) discloses a landscaping rake-leveling device. West et al (US 3,470,964) discloses an earth working implement. Kelley (US 2,783,699) discloses ripper plows. Sembler et al (US 2,371,549) discloses a rake attachment.
